Supervisor Knabe made the following statement:

“The Monterey Bay Veterans, Inc., Sports Rehabilitation Center provides mental and physical rehabilitation and access to outdoor recreation, with an emphasis on marine sports, free of charge to Disabled Veterans and active duty personnel who are receiving treatment at military hospitals. This organization is again conducting its ‘Freedom Tour’ program this year from September 10 through October 28, 2007. This seven-week ‘tour’ along the coast of California from Napa to San Diego includes sport fishing, boating safety courses, sightseeing, marine environment fishing and the scattering of ashes with full military honors. The vessel will be docked at the Burton W. Chace Park transient docks during the period October 1 through October 8, 2007.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, unanimously carried (Supervisors Molina and Yaroslavsky being absent), the Board waived transient dock fees in the amount of $208, excluding the cost of liability insurance, for use of a Burton W. Chace Park transient dock, for the Monterey Bay Veterans, Inc., Sports Rehabilitation Center’s “Freedom Tour,” during the period of October 1 through 8, 2007.
